Contestants with the best rank in preceding round (s). (Split the firsts, seconds, thirds, and fourths.) Moved by Jack Stafford, seconded, and passed.

Bonnie read a letter from Day Hanks regarding conflicting dates for Service Clubs and Leagues. She asked that league presidents get qualifying dates to Ray Schaefer so he can notify the clubs.

A committee was appointed to review amateur status vs. professional status and report back: Bob Jones, Chair, Mike Miller, Bob Davis, Louis Cockerham, and Shirley Keller.

A committee was appointed to discuss the possibility of ballots for Individual Events and the procedure for ballot review at the State Tournament: Dave Hooper, Chair, Ron Reel, and Sharon Dizzutti.

A committee was appointed to review the judging assignment procedure for the State Tournament: Tom Roper, Chair, Jim McDonnell, Jack Stafford, and Sandy Gray.

Tom Roper distributed the apportionment of qualifiers form to the Council.

Vice President-Curriculum

Peggy Lawyer thanked the coaches for judging extra rounds at the State Tournament.

The curriculum people prepared and collected material on interps, debate, speech communication, and general works. Letters were sent out and 89 responded. The report will be in the next Bulletin on handbooks and institutes. A notebook was distributed with all material under one cover to take to league meetings.

3. A letter dated 12-23-76 was received from the Regents. The UC decision not to accept drama, speech or journalism for high school English credit was reversed. However, all courses must include heavy emphasis on writing skills. (A duplicate copy of this letter is available from either Peggy Lawyer or Jackie Reedy, Secretary).

4. A letter in the Los Angeles Times is needed to confirm this action.

B. Curriculum materials for the Bulletin:

1. A recommendation was made that curriculum materials for the Bulletin be provided in an information section that indicates where to locate or secure materials. This action will stimulate more communication with area curriculum representatives. The Bulletin will contain lists of where to secure things not the materials themselves.

C. Curriculum sub-committee: M. Shoendorf

1. Texts will be reviewed periodically by a book review section.

a. Textbook lists will be updated. Some new texts were introduced:

Oral Interp - Gamble

Extemp - Mid-American (tells how to get started in extemp)
