Implicit biases

are pervasive. Everyone possesses them, even people with avowed commitments to impartiality, such as judges.

BIAS IN FORENSICS

Bias manifests across race/ ethnic, gender, & other lines. Some facts about gender impacts in debate¹:

Aggression

Female-presenting debaters are criticized on ballots for being “aggressive” at a rate 2x higher than male-presenting debaters.

Emotion

Female-presenting debaters are criticized on ballots for being “emotional” at a rate 10x higher than male-presenting debaters.

Tone

Female-presenting debaters are 2x as likely to be criticized for how they debate, rather than the substance of their arguments.

A quick note on Implicit Bias

WHAT IT IS: The attitudes or stereotypes that affect our understanding, actions, and decisions in an unconscious manner. Activated involuntarily, without awareness or intentional control. Can be either positive or negative. Everyone is susceptible.

What you can do

- ✓ When assessing the performance of someone from a marginalized group, try to focus on concrete positive and negative factors and your memory of what actually happened, rather than relying on overall “gut” feelings.
- ✓ Notice when your decisions or comments might have been caused by bias or stereotypes, and make an intention to think positive thoughts when judging members of marginalized groups.
- ✓ Bias is a habit. Like any habit, becoming aware of the habit and being motivated to change are necessary first steps.

MAYOR ROBERT GARCIA
CITY OF LONG BEACH

May 3, 2019

Dear Debaters, Family and Friends, Judges and Spectators:

Welcome to the 62nd annual California High School Speech Association State Championship Tournament. This is a unique and exciting tradition and we're extremely proud to host the tournament here in Long Beach again. Thank you for choosing our city!

I am an educator myself, with degrees in education and communications, and as Mayor I've made education a top priority, and made sure to communicate closely with constituents. So I feel a personal connection to this event, which can only exist when we value education, knowledge, and communication - all of which are so important in governing a city as well.

But what you debaters are engaged in goes above and beyond the basic requirements of a high school education. You have chosen to participate in the free, public exchange of ideas. You win your arguments based on factual information, sound reasoning, and stirring rhetorical skill. You can't hide behind anonymity on the internet, and you don't have flashy graphics to help you. You have only your words and your ideas.

These skills are so important to our democratic republic, to our civil society, and to the causes of equality and social justice. By learning the arts of respectful debate and rhetoric, you are not only preparing yourself to be future advocates, activists, and leaders, you are making our state and our country a better, stronger place.

Thank you and good luck!

Sincerely,

Dr. Robert Garcia
Mayor, City of Long Beach

CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOL SPEECH ASSOCIATION

PROUDLY PRESENTS

2019 CALIFORNIA MIDDLE SCHOOL STATE CHAMPIONSHIP
MAY 17-19, 2019

A Letter from the President

*The California High School Speech Association has been offering the opportunity for Californians to come together in friendly, educational, statewide competition for over 60 years. But, why CHSSA?

Unlike many other states, where speech and debate is governed by a state activities organization that includes athletics and all other competitions, California is fortunate to have maintained a special kind of autonomy for speech and debate.

That matters. This unique function allows all of California to have a voice in the rules and regulations of competition, while balancing local needs and interests. The autonomy and longevity of all parts of CHSSA is what makes California unique.

As CHSSA moves forward, many exciting changes have been put in place to make sure speech and debate is available for everyone at all levels in California. CHSSA has had an important voice within the NSDA to help diversify and increase equity in our activity. CHSSA is offering its first Middle School State Tournament. CHSSA has reached out to Migrant Ed & Urban Debate programs in order to assist those programs and allow a dialogue and collaboration between different populations we serve under our common cause. CHSSA has some of the best free curriculum available which has been designed and continues to be used in classrooms (even outside California!).

Speech and debate helps classroom instruction in demonstrating how to create a cogent argument, how to respond, and how to maintain civility above all else. There are not evil things lurking in the shadows. There is not "something going on" that one may not see. We live within a marketplace of ideas, where the common good decides upon the value of arguments, support, and ideas.

*Inquiry and exploration are needed to shed light in the darkness. Plurality is not bad and, as CHSSA has demonstrated for more than half a century,
more choices are not a distraction, rather they are truly the nature of who we are as humans.*

Many have lost the true meaning of the word forensics. Google it, then skip down to the less used meanings and the classical roots of the word. While CHSSA has accomplished much within its 60 years, there is still so much more to do. The hard work and dedication of the volunteers, coaches, judges, and students speaks to the personal value of the activity that we unite this weekend to celebrate and participate.

It is not about breaking or being in finals; it is about being a human, expressing ones' views, perceptions, and interpretations of their world. It is about conquering the world's number one fear.

We are fortunate to be at California State University Long Beach for the State Championship of 2019, but we are even more fortunate to stand on the shoulders of giants that came before us. CSU Long Beach has supported high school forensics for over three decades and partnering with them again this year is a continuation of collaboration between the high school and college forensic programs around the state.

The question is not "Why CHSSA?". The question should simply be:

"Why not Forensics?"

Sincerely,

2018 State Champions

The CHSSA STUDENT OF THE YEAR

This award highlights students who, through utilizing their speech and debate skills, best embody our organization's beliefs about integrity, character, and service as outlined in the CHSSA Mission Statement. A strong emphasis is placed on student activism and community outreach.

2018 WINNER

POOJA HERAGU

Clovis North High School
Southern Valley Forensic League

"After working to advocate for prevention, awareness, and aide for relationship violence victims, I have personally witnessed that forensics students have a charisma that helps convey a message with a confidence that audiences recognize.

It is important for speech and debate students to be advocates, because we know how to truly engage audiences, ensuring that important messages are conveyed in the most impactful manner. Growing up, I had very few "creative" talents. I could not draw a stick figure, write poems, think of innovative science experiments, etc., so I always felt like I was just a person who lacked the spark to create. After joining Forensics,

I was able to discover and use my own creative talents. Speech and Debate helps develop the important skill of confident articulation, creative argumentation, and encourages all of us to become informed on world issues. Spending hours on each speech, finding new methods to connect with a wider audience, creating intriguing introductions, and combining heartfelt with humor, was what made me feel original. Forming these ideas helps students develop vital critical thinking skills.

The way to truly measure your success in life is whether or not your actions create a positive effect on the people around you."

2019 NOMINEES

NADINE FATTAH

Monte Vista High School
Golden Gate Speech Association

"In this community, there is power in vulnerability, respect for passion, and a desire to unify beyond any measurable divide. Speeches aren't simply meant to be heard; they are meant to educate, challenge, and resonate. I am encouraged to question the status quo, mobilized to speak up on issues, and inspired to share my understandings with those willing to listen.

In a room full of unfamiliar people, I find a place where I can safely share my experience as a Muslim woman in America, while also listening to the experiences of my fellow competitors.

The platform provided through speech and debate demands that these voices are heard and understood. It is through speech and debate that I've had the opportunity to hear the stories and messages of people from all walks of life, as well as understand those who are different from me in a setting where everyone is supportive of each other's messages. During one of the darkest and most polarizing times in our world's history, it's through speech and debate that I've had the chance to better understand a community of people who have different experiences and beliefs than me, and I wouldn't change that for the world. The skills and understandings I have gained through speech and debate have enabled me to translate the messages I advocate for in my speeches into real action in my community.

Speech and debate is a driving force and a reminder to everyone that their words have impact and that change is possible."

"In this uniquely digital age, we're forced to process information more rapidly than ever. We regurgitate headlines without even skimming over their content; we like and subscribe to facts that change by the second.

Speech and debate emphasizes calculated analysis and critical thought in a world that values speed above coherence.

Forensics reminds our communities of the importance of reflection and articulation; it encourages us to sift through information carefully and to question what we're told. When our communities take the time to deliberately analyze our surrounding world, we all benefit from increased attentiveness, whether it manifests in voter turnout or more responsible governance.

Debate offers a creative outlet that pushes me to think differently; it has taught me how to speak persuasively and passionately. I've learned to advocate with conviction and imagination through storytelling. And I've found a family among the quirky and spirited girls of the team. The electric intellectualism and dynamic passion with which we argue keeps me on my toes, indulges my creativity, and makes me a better leader. When all members of my team leave proud of themselves and one another, richer for the knowledge they've gained, a sense of pride and fulfillment sets in.

This celebratory sisterhood unites novices and champions -- and this bond fuels me more than any trophy could."

2019 NOMINEES

BRANDON HARDEN

Waterford High School
Yosemite Forensic League

"Speech and debate is more than just a competition for me. In speech and debate, you have the unique opportunity to discuss controversial topics in a well-educated way. I have been able to debate both in competition and out of competition about issues currently facing our nation. This is a unique opportunity rarely available to students my age.

It is crucial that the opportunities of speech and debate are made available to all people.

Those who compete in speech and debate have the opportunity to refine their voices and learn how to be persuasive. Moreover, students have a unique perspective on the issues that we face. Because of this, we have an incredible opportunity to advocate for change regarding the issues we are all facing.

Forensics brings so much to a community. In small, rural communities like mine this program allows students the rare opportunity to grow and better themselves. Speech and debate offers students the opportunity to compete at many different levels and to travel, something that few students are typically able to do.

Success is more than just the number of awards you've received; success is about the service you give. It doesn't matter how 'successful' you are; it matters how you work with those around you to help them become successful as well."

"In an increasingly polarized global political climate, our world is being controlled by figures who reject every aspect of effective communication and collective decision making skills. The people who win elections are no longer the best politicians, but the ones who most steadfastly defend their party's radical beliefs and censor any dissenters.

Speech and debate allows us to understand that every issue is multifaceted, to empathize with people who believe both sides of a given issue, and to realize that - in order to make the world a better place - we must work together with individuals of all different backgrounds and beliefs.

Whether soft or loud, high or low, we are all gifted with our unique voices.

Speech and debate gives us the tools to synthesize ideas from our voices – to use our gifts to express ourselves in ways that no one else can. It also allows us to work collaboratively with others in our community, cooperating and competing with people with the same goal – to refine and polish their voices into powerful forces to drive the future.

As a leader and coach of the younger members of my speech and debate team, my view of ultimate accomplishment is seeing the students who I have raised from middle school students or novice debaters to the mature-thinking young adults they are now, using their communication and leadership skills to provide support to the future of speech and debate, and eventually the leaders of our world. My teammates and coaches have become my family – the group of people who I know are there to support me through anything that life throws my way."

KYLE KISHIMOTO

Fairmont Preparatory Academy
Orange County Speech League

"Speech and debate is a sacred activity where I'm given permission to explore all avenues of life, speaking out about the issues that are important to me. No longer bound by societal norms or cultural expectations, but able to gain access to a platform where I can finally use my voice, allowing my contained passion to ignite into a neverending flame of advocacy.

It is important to normalize and support students who are from cultural and societal niches.

Speech and debate has always been a platform to present the struggles and obstacles from our own cultural, ethnic, and historical backgrounds and experiences; thus, its important to elevate individuals and pieces, showing our solidarity and support for those from diverse multicultural and marginalized backgrounds. Further, it's important to provide the resources, from coaches to accessibility to news providers to opportunities to attend training camps, to uplift and provide the tools necessary to succeed from these diverse and marginalized backgrounds.

Words are humanity's greatest power and tool for change.

It's extremely important students to be advocate because we are given access to a platform that has the potential to invoke and initiate a great amount of change. We have a responsibility to use words with conviction, sharing stories and arguing sides to promote understanding and empathy, creating change one speech and debate at a time. After all,

we are, first and foremost, advocates."

TANAYA KOLLIPARA

Mountain House High School
Yosemite Forensic League

CORDELIA TRAN

Fullerton Union High School
Orange County Speech League

"With financial classes and political parties dividing our communities, country, and society more than ever, speech and debate gives young people the ability and confidence to communicatively bridge these gaps. This unity is the only way we can successfully find compromise and solutions to the complex issues in our world.

Giving young people the tools to achieve change is how we can move forward.

While competitive success compares individuals to each other, the true measure of success is comparing the person you are, to the person you hope to become. In practicing forensics, speech and debate students truly hone in and develop the communication skills that allow us to be successful advocates for the causes that impassion us. While everyone should have a duty to advocate for themselves and others, speech and debate students truly have trained the skill set to make their desired impact.

Debate is argumentation, Limited Prep is adaptability and quick thinking, Platform is expressed thoughtfulness, and Interpretation is storytelling. Each of these has their very own importance that deserves its individual respects, however as a whole, they each define progress in their own ways. Through every form of Speech and Debate, we have the platform to champion our principles, and we learn the importance of every single voice.

Through Speech and Debate, we have the platform to champion our principles and we learn the importance of every single voice."

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

In Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," when Malvolio remarks that, "some have greatness thrust upon 'em," he is referring to an opportunity to advance himself, but true greatness is, as the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. noted, "determined by service." If we are speaking of true greatness then, no one I know has "greatness thrust upon 'em" more often, or accepts that burden more willingly, than Terry Abad. In the Golden Gate Speech Association, when the question is, "Who is willing to serve as league President?" or, "Can anyone host this tournament?" all eyes turn to Terry. And his answer is almost always, "I can."

Over his 14 years directing the speech and debate program at his alma mater, San Francisco's Lowell High School, Terry Abad has served as the coach of his students, a frequent tournament host (including the CHSSA State Championship), President and Treasurer of the GGSA, Chair of the San Francisco Bay NSDA District, and tournament tab staff extraordinaire.

Laila McClay of Sonoma Academy recalls: "When our league first switched from tabbing on cards to using Joy of Tournaments, Terry was one of the first to jump in and take that on. He did this WHILE he was also league president. In my early years of GGSA, Terry was the GGSA. None of our tournaments would have happened without Terry."

This is no exaggeration, as the move from paper to computer tabbing had the effect of shrinking the tab staff from a multitude of coaches to a single person, namely Terry, doing all of the data entry for every single tournament.

We were, unsurprisingly, in no hurry to relieve Terry of these duties, so he soldiered on for many years as a "tabroom of one" (assisted by a reader and runner or two) for far too long. When it became clear that this mode of operation was unsustainable, Terry trained other coaches in how to use the program and he was always there to offer phone support when he could not attend the tournament. Close to a dozen coaches now tab GGSA tournaments because it requires that many people to replace Terry. Yet even at the tournaments that he does not attend, Terry is a constant presence, as Kimberly Fradelis of Bentley explains:

TERRY ABAD

2019 Donovan Cummings
Service-Above-Self Winner

"More often than not, when the crew of people are doing the job that Terry used to do alone tabbing IE or debate, we ask ourselves, WWTD (what would Terry do)? That, along with a quick phone call and review of the bylaws usually gets us out of rough spots."

Terry's tournament tabbing is just one example of the many ways he serves his students and the greater speech and debate community. He accepts leadership positions and critical tasks that no one else will take and, as Kristen Plant says, "embraces any opportunity to empower students through speech and debate. Through his consistent hosting and hospitality, and compassion and problem-solving, Terry makes time for any student or coach who needs help." He has also been known to share his birthday cupcakes with the kids in Parli Prep (truly selfless!).

Dr. Tommie Lindsey, Jr., Director Emeritus of the James Logan High School program sums it up well when he writes that:

"Terry stands out as the epitome of what a coach should be. I cannot imagine anyone else more worthy of this honor. Terry has served as the foundation of the GGSA for numerous years, serving as the (former) president and oftentimes not only the brains and brawn behind the scenes, but also the moxie that holds our league together. We are proud to have his guiding presence in the GGSA and thank him tremendously for his tireless service."

Written by Lexy Green

Each year, one person is selected by the Executive Council to receive this award, named after CHSSA's first historian, Donovan Cummings. This award is given to someone who goes above and beyond to spread forensics throughout the state of California.

"For the past two years, CDC has been the highlight of my summer. I had the opportunity to work alongside an incredible group of caring staffers who always prioritized the needs of the students, often spending extra evening hours ensuring that each camper received the one-on-one instruction they needed. This same devotion was demonstrated in labs and electives. What's more, the community we developed in just a short time at CDC was very special, and I'm still happy to talk to many of the staffers and students I spent the past two summers with. I recommend all debaters and extempers visit Ohio and attend CDC. Not only will you make life-long friends, but also receive unparalleled guidance in traditional debate and extemp speaking that cannot be found anywhere else."

- Natalie Schaller, 2017 NSDA LD National Champion
